

Murray & Co Graduate Position

Background

Murray & Co is a leading New Zealand investment banking firm that provides expert financial and transactional advice to a range of companies and other commercial entities. We also invest in and arrange finance for New Zealand businesses and property projects.

In providing this graduate opportunity Murray & Co aims to foster interest and awareness in the investment banking sector in New Zealand, with a view to encouraging home-grown talent and ultimately contributing to New Zealand's economic future.

To learn more about the company visit www.murrays.co.nz.

The Graduate Position

- The successful applicant will commence full time employment as an Analyst in early 2020.
- The analyst will work directly with senior members of the Investment Banking team on a range of mandates, including mergers and acquisitions, capital raising, as well as the provision of strategic and financial advice.
- The analyst's key responsibilities will include; research and analysis, documentation preparation, modelling, analysis, valuation support, transaction execution support, idea generation and supporting marketing activities of the firm.
- The successful applicant will have a degree or post graduate degree in law or commerce and advanced computer skills including an ability to work effectively with the full Microsoft Office suite, especially excel, word and powerpoint.
- The successful applicant will be highly numeric and possess strong analytical skills. They will have strong verbal and written communication skills and be a team player who thrives under pressure. The successful applicant will also be results focussed and have outstanding attention to detail.
- The role is based in Christchurch and remuneration will be negotiated with the successful applicant.

Who can Apply

Any student at a New Zealand university studying towards a degree or post graduate qualification who has a desire to pursue a career in finance can apply.

Murray & Co are looking for a student who combines intellectual ability with a genuine interest and awareness of investment banking activity in Australasia. The successful applicant will have a strong academic record and will be a self-starter with a desire to learn from and be involved in the current transactions of the firm.

The Application and Selection Process

Applicants should submit the following information to rebecca.bone@murrays.co.nz, referencing "Graduate Position" in the subject header no later than 26 April 2019:

- A cover letter addressed to Murray & Company Limited
- Your current CV
- An original or true certified copy of your academic record

All candidates will receive acknowledgement of their application and some will be required for interview shortly after the closing date. Selection will be based principally upon academic achievement, personal attributes and the candidate's interest in a career in the finance industry.

Any questions can be addressed to rebecca.bone@murrays.co.nz.